

Lewisham says NO to cuts

Rally for an Alternative — For jobs, growth, justice

Tuesday 22 February 7pm–8.45pm

Refreshments, stalls and entertainment from 6pm
Goldsmiths College, New Cross

Speakers:

Brendan Barber General Secretary, TUC

Jody McIntyre Journalist and anti-cuts activist

Mick Burke Economist and journalist

Bindz Patel President, Goldsmiths Student Union

Doris Smith Lewisham Pensioners Forum and Save our NHS

Heather Wakefield UNISON Local Govt Nat Sec
plus local trade unions and anti-cuts activists

Go to Ian Gulland Lecture Theatre: access via gate at end of Laurie Grove, London SE14 6NH. Near New Cross stations and bus routes.

Organised by: Lewisham Trades Union Council with support of Goldsmiths Student Union.

For info email: no_cuts@yahoo.co.uk.

Or visit Lewisham says no to cuts — Rally for an Alternative on Facebook.

To download materials including an image to use on your website, visit www.mulberrypromenade.org.uk/downloads.html.

Rally in support of the TUC national demonstration in London on March 26th 'March for the alternative: jobs — growth — justice', against the government's draconian cuts and its effects on those least able to withstand them. We will hear from local and national campaigners about the alternative to cuts and how to build the broadest opposition and TUC demonstration.

TUC March for the Alternative: Saturday 26 March